

Link Line

On your own or feeling isolated?
Need help with daily living tasks or getting to medical appointments?

Link Line the friendly voice - there when you need it most

Day or night someone there to talk to or for help getting to medical or other appointments or emergency shopping.

Whether for you or someone you know for as little as £2.50 each week Link Line can make a difference.

Those friendly people at Link Line can help you cope with every day living and stay independent.

Call (01933) 446496 and find out how they could make all the difference.

Keeping in touch . . .

